

Fall 2009

Brethren Christian Middle and Senior High School will develop:

2

learners who

- 2.1 practice honesty and integrity
- 2.2 take personal responsibility in the learning process
- 2.3 view reading as a valuable, continuing avocation
- 2.4 are competent in the core subject areas as well as other coursework
- 2.5 exhibit an openness to diverse experiences in teaching and learning styles
- 2.6 experience creativity through involvement in and exposure to the arts
- 2.7 use technology, as appropriate, to enhance and facilitate their learning
- 2.8 commit to continued spiritual growth, knowing and following Jesus Christ

Spring 2010

Brethren Christian Middle and Senior High School will develop:

5 servers and givers who

- 5.1 pursue health in body, mind, and spirit
- 5.2 contribute to the community as active and informed citizens
- 5.3 demonstrate biblical stewardship in their care and use of resources
- 5.4 model Christian ethics and purity
- 5.5 lead in selfless service and giving to God and others